

Our Contentious Tax Offering

William Fry's Contentious Tax Group is a multi-disciplinary team comprising solicitors, barristers, tax advisors and chartered accountants that is dedicated to and has extensive experience of advising on complex and sensitive tax disputes.

William Fry's Contentious Tax Group combines the expertise of its highly respected tax practice group with litigators who have specialist experience of tax disputes and investigations.

Our Contentious Tax Group distinguishes itself from some of the more traditional tax practices: its main focus is on excellent advocacy and litigation. One of our core strengths is being able to conduct litigation and give related advice not only in statutory appeals before the Tax Appeals Commission and beyond; but also give consideration to related claims for judicial review and references to the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU), as appropriate

We provide advisory and advocacy services and represent clients in the Tax Appeals Commission, the High Court, the Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court. We also represent clients in the CJEU.

All of our barristers are registered with the Legal Services Regulatory Authority.

Our highly regarded team covers all aspect of tax disputes, from technical tax input, tactical litigation advice and court advocacy. We provide independent advice and support on all tax controversies pertaining to corporate/business taxes, personal tax, VAT, compensation and benefits and stamp duties. If an issue requires determination by the Tax Appeals Commission or by the courts, then our tax litigation experts (solicitors and barristers) are available to assist in bringing or defending all such proceedings.

Our Contentious Tax offering consists of:

- working closely with clients to resolve contentious tax matters discreetly before any court proceedings commence
- litigating and advocating on your behalf in the Tax Appeals Commission, High Court, Court of Appeal, Supreme Court and the CJEU
- acting as expert witnesses who can provide clear, reliable and independent evidence to courts and tribunals
- assisting in all tax controversy matters from tax risk management to investigations, audits and settlements through to tax litigation
- working collaboratively to resolve clients' tax disputes
