Bridging talent and opportunity

Introduction to PeopleBridge by William Fry

PeopleBridge by William Fry is Ireland's premium Alternative Legal Service Provider offering.

PeopleBridge provides high-quality, interim legal and tax advisors to businesses, flexibly and at short notice. The service is specifically designed to address short to medium term resourcing requirements by offering experienced legal and tax advisors on flexible contracts. All PeopleBridge panel members are of the same high quality and calibre expected of our own legal and tax professionals and are fully vetted by William Fry. Our PeopleBridge panel also includes company secretarial specialists and paralegals with a range of career experience who are available to fulfil interim resourcing needs.

PeopleBridge allows a business to have a personalised, experienced legal or tax resource that can adapt to its requirements quickly, while offering access to the full resources of William Fry as required. All PeopleBridge panel members placed with businesses are employed by William Fry on a fixed-term contract or as an independent contractor where appropriate.

This service is highly recommended for any business that wants to quickly extend the capacity of its in-house legal or tax team, or which has a resourcing requirement such as arranging cover for in-house lawyers or tax advisors, supporting a project-specific mandate, or managing budgetary constraints on permanent hires. PeopleBridge panel members seamlessly integrate with businesses, leading to a more efficient way of working, without the cost or process of hiring a full-time employee.

PeopleBridge for Business

PeopleBridge by William Fry is an attractive solution for businesses across all sectors, including other law firms. It addresses time-sensitive workload challenges and back-fill positions, providing legal and tax staffing resources on a flexible, fixed term basis or at short notice without the burden of lengthy and costly recruitment processes.

Our PeopleBridge lawyers and tax advisors are skilled and dynamic senior professionals who have worked at top law and tax firms and businesses across Ireland. Businesses can take comfort in the fact that legal and tax advisors placed on short-term assignments through PeopleBridge have been vetted by a full-service premium corporate law firm and have access to the support and resources of William Fry. Our PeopleBridge panel also includes company secretarial specialists and paralegals with a range of career experience who are available to fulfil interim resourcing needs.

Key highlights for businesses include:

	Quality assured service offered to both clients and non-clients of William Fry.
	Access to the full resources of William Fry as required.
	Resource solutions for ad-hoc business requirements, such as part-time, temporary, fixed term, project specific demands, that are otherwise difficult to fill.
	Confidence in the excellence of your panel member, ensured by rigorous initial screening and performance reviewing of panel members on placement.
	Speed of placement is our forte. All panel members we offer have been reference checked, pre-screened, pre-vetted and availability confirmed. This means that if we offer you a panel member that fits, that panel member is ready for placement within your timeline.

We make it our business to know your business. This means that you are appropriately matched with a panel member who is right for your business, leading to faster integration and greater efficiencies all round.

“PeopleBridge is a scheme that offers a unique opportunity to tap into William Fry’s talent pool and utilise experienced legal staff who rapidly familiarise themselves with our business needs. At Glanbia we found the calibre of legal professional offered to us by William Fry to be of an exceptionally high standard and are very pleased with the service received.

Michael O’Hara
Group General Counsel, Glanbia plc

“I was impressed by the flexibility, responsiveness and attention to detail of PeopleBridge when I was seeking a temporary placement in my office for litigation services.

Testimonials from PeopleBridge Clients

“Glanbia got involved with PeopleBridge by William Fry as a novel alternative to seconding junior lawyers from law firms. It is rapidly deployable and gives us access to experienced lawyers who would not be allowed out on secondment if they were following a traditional career path in the law firm. Being able to utilise William Fry’s expertise as part of our in-house team has allowed us to add valuable depth and experience when faced with particularly complex situations and when we have short to medium term resource constraints.”

Michael O’Hara

Group General Counsel - Glanbia plc

“Using PeopleBridge allows businesses to have a personalised, experienced legal resource that can adapt to their company requirements very quickly. PeopleBridge staff will seamlessly become very familiar with your business, which leads to faster response times and a more efficient way of working, all without having to undertake the cost or go through the process of hiring a full-time employee.”

Juliette Roche

PeopleBridge Panel Member

“PeopleBridge is offering a bespoke solution for temporary placement for legal professionals. The backup and support offered as part of the service is attractive and inspires confidence.”
